Dear Tiziano,

On behalf of the Project Management Institute Educational Foundation (PMIEF) Board of Directors, volunteers and staff, I am writing to extend our sincere thanks to The Project Management Lab for your commitment to our work. With help from donors like you, PMIEF continues to support project management and project-based learning education for youth across the globe.

As a PMIEF Leadership Society Member, The Project Management Lab joins others in helping us create transformational change in learning through project management; no-cost educational resources; community youth programs, as well as, scholarships for deserving youth, nonprofit staff and emerging practitioners.

Through your ongoing support, The Project Management Lab recognizes the importance of bringing project management to every area of our lives- family, school, work and communities, throughout the world. All associated with PMIEF are grateful for this support, which will help PMIEF continue its efforts in the coming year to promote the power of project management for social good® across the globe!

We truly could not do all that we do without your support! Thank you!

Sincerely,

Jeannette L. Barr, MS
